junior warden: J. Adam Bernhard, treasurer: Christian Souders, recorder; Geo. W. Lough-man, standard bearer; Hugh T. Montgomery, sword bearer; John Tromp, warder; George A.

The New Albany commandery of New Albany, Ind., had forty Hoosiers in line. They were the regulation dress of the Enights Tem-ar and were preceded by their officers who are as follows:Sir. W. Floyd Tuley. eminent commander; Sir Walter B Godfrey, generalissimo: Sir Hugh J. Needham captain general; Sir J B. Timberlake, prelate; Sir Walter C. Nuneacher, senior warden Sir James C. Townsend junior warden, Sir Walter C. Nunemacher treasurer; Sir M. D. Condiff. recorder: Sir Wm. J. Ceans, stand ard bearer; Sir Bennette, sword bearer Sir Theo. A. McDonald, warden, and Sir John Kafius, sentinel. The commandery has never participated in any event worthy of special mention, but has always been known as a working commandery, having knighted over two hundred and fifty candidates. Eminent Commander Tuley is a newspaper man and is at present Indiana editor of the Louisville Commercial. Out of a membership of ninety of the Knights town commandery, No. 9, of Knightstown, Ind. more than fifty appeared in the parade today, which would indicate that they came from a knights' town in reality, They believe in discipline, and appeared in regulation uniform and carried the standard parade banner. The commandery was officered by Sirs L. P. Newby, eminent commander; James Mowrer, generalissimo; O. E. Holoway, captain general; William man, sentor warden; O.

EM. COM. TULEY.

H. Barrett, junior war-Wilkinson, recorder: John Weaver. treasurer; L. A. Bell. EM. COM. NEWBY. standard bearer; J. M. Wank, sword bearer; John T. Barnes, warder, and C. R. Whitesel, sentinel. Terre Haute commandery, No. 16, of Terre Haute. Ind., marched with much spirit and animation as it filled its place in the procession The commandery wore the regulation uniform and carried no distinctive banner. The banner which they carried 商會 was a regulation one the only distinction being the name and date of its charter inscribed the Navy R. W. Thompson is one of the members of this commandery. It was under command of Leonard S.

Briggs, eminent commander; Robert Taggart, generalissimo; Robert P. Davis, captain general; Wm. S. Roney, prelate; Wm. E. Perryman, senior warden; Wm. C. Eichelberger, junior warden; David C. Greiner, treasurer; John W. Davis, recorder; Ellis E. South, standard bearer; Jacob D. Early, sword bearer; Geo. Likert, warder; Samuel Austermiller, third guard; Chas. D. Griffith, second gward; Chas. C. Luckey, first guard; Frank P. Sargent, organist.

The thirty-five sir knights of the Vincennes commandery of Vincennes, Ind., known in the west as the "mother lodge of Masonry" in Indiana, presented a fine appearance as they marched next in line. It was chartered in 1809. at which time Vincennes was an army outpost. was marshaled by Mason J. Niblack, eminent commander; Geo. mo; Walter M. Hindman, EM. COM NIBLACK. cantain general; William M. Medcalf, prelate; George G. Relly, senior warden; Charles S. Miller, Junior warden; Wilson M. Tyler, treasurer; Sheridan H. Isaacs, recorder; Franklin Clarke, standard bearer; William J. Heberd, sword bearer; Charles E. Ramsdell, warder; Charles T. Agnew, sentinel.

Beneath a handsome white silk banner, with cross and crown and the name, number and location of the commandery embroidered there-on, marched Crawfordsville commandery, No. on, marched Crawfordsville commandery, No. 25, a comparatively new but a very flourishing commandery. One of its members has the honors of being a past grand master of the Grand lodge of Masons and past illustrious grand master of the Grand council of the state of Indiana. Twenty-five sir knights were in line and were officered as follows: Frank L. Snyder, eminent commander; Albert S. Miller, generalissimo: James M. Wagner, captain general; Wallace Sparks, senior warden; Harry K. Snyder, junior warden; Chas. Goitra, treasurer; Lucien A. Foote, recorder; John L. Davis, standard bearer; Fred C. Bandle, sword bearer; Fred R. Rosebro, warder; Darwin S. Enoch, first guard; John C. Edgworth, second guard; Harrie Pontiars, third guard; Wm. G. Hanna, sentinel.

commandery, No. 26, of Plymouth, Ind., with 25 400

sir knights in line, and though small in membership is known as one of the best commanderand includes in its membership some eminent and high-degree Masons lows: George H. Thaver r., eminent commander oseph Swindell, generalissimo; Roscoe Chase, captain general Rev. Thomas B. Kemp D. D. prelate; Leande

Then came Plymouth

EM. COM. THAYER J. Southworth, senior warden; Charles H. Swindell, junior warden; Chester C. Buck, treasurer; John A. Palmer, recorder; James W. Thayer, standard bearer Charles R. Hughes, sword bearer; John W Hubbard, warder; Anson P. Elliott, captain of the guard; John C. Jilson, first guard; Oliver P. Klinger, second guard; John W. Houghton, third guard.

The Valparaiso commandery, No. 28, of Valparaiso, Ind., contributed forty-six sir knights to the procession and made a most excellent showing. They carried a banner which had on the front a mounted knight with name, number, and where located worked in silk and bullion. The back was black and white silk, with Maltese cross in center. Malta motto over top. It was officered by Sire

400 6

H. B. Brown, eminent commander; Matthew Turner, generalissimo; William Segerdahl, cap- EM. COM. BROWN. tain general; Rev. G. M. Boyd, prel tain general; Rev. G. M. Boyd, prel-ate; G. W. Arnold, senior warden; W. H. Gardner, junior warden; M. L. McClelland, treasurer; E. V. Arnold, recorder; Jonathan Osborn, standard bearer; E. D. Crumpacker sword bearer; H. N. Renner, warder; S. R. Martin, guard.

Eminent Commander Brown, whose portrait is presented is about forty years of age, a thorough business man. He is the principal of the northern Indiana normal school, located at Valparaiso and the largest school of the kind in the world; a whole-souled genial sir knight, of whom Valparaiso commandery is proud. Marching with perfect ease and precision came the Michigan City commandery, No. 30, of Michigan City, Ind., furnishing thirty swords to the procession. The unitorm is the regulation as prescribed by the Grand commandery of the state. The mem cuffs and gauntiets and use the cross emproidered in the sleeve of the

A full roster of the

EM. COM. TILLOTSON. U. Culbert, captain general; W.W. Perkins, prelate; J. S. Hopper, treasurer; A. S. Nichols, recorder; J. L. Shrader, senior warden; William Fosdick, junior warden; A. D. Campbell, standard, senior captains, and senior captains. Campbell, standard bearer; George G. Oliver, sword bearer; Richard Hutchinson, warder; Jos. Oliver, R. W. Street and A. P. Griffith, guards;

J. F. Kewner, sentinel. Thirty-three knights of St. John commandery. No. 1, of Logansport, joined in the pro-cession. headed by the following officers: An-drew J. Robinson, eminent commander; Chas. B. Stevenson, generalissimo; Thomas Meyers, captain general; Henry C. Eversole, prelate; Theodore S. Kerns, senior warden; Walter A. Osmer, junior warden; John E. Redmond, treasurer; Samuel H. Richardson, recorder; Robt.

B. Whitsett, standard bearer; Jorden E. Gib-son, sword bearer; John B. Winters, warder; George C. Horne, sentinel; Wm. Bedwards, first guard; Robert M. Carney, second guard; George W. Flanagan, third guard.

TEXAS.

The banner borne by the Grand commandery of Texas in the parade is distinctive of the grand body of the Lone Star state. The memhere were the regulation uniform. The officers are: Sir Knights John Martin of Paris com-mandery, No. 9, Paris, right eminent grand commander; L. M. Krupply of Dallas command ery. No. 6, Dallas, very eminent deputy grand commander; James Gar-Gueselin commandery, No. 14. Corsicans, emi-

GRAND COM. MARTIN. simo; D. C. Proctor Golind commandery, Golind, eminent grand under the banner of that captain general; J. C. Carpenter of Indivis-ible Friends commandery, at Sherman, No. some of seniors' points 13, eminent grand prelate; T. J. Beall in marching and won of El Paso commandery, No. 18, El Paso, loud praise. The foleminent grand senior warden; E. J. Fry of Gray commandery, No. 16, Marshall, emilist of officers: Philip nent grand junior warden; H. Schaffins of T. Van Zile, eminent Buthven commandery. No. 2. Houston, emi- commander; A. M. Barnent grand treasurer; R. Brunton of Ruthven commandery. No. 2, Houston. eminent grand recorder; L. T. Noyes of Ruthven commandery, No. 2, Houston. grand standard bearer; R. prelate; G. B. Allen. A. Rogers of Worth commandery. No. 19, Fort Worth, grand sword bearer; John McDonald of Huggett, junior warden; No. 4. Austin, grand warder; T. D. E. f. Church, treasurer; Joinen of Indivisible Friends commandery, No.

MICHIGAN.

13, Sherman, grand guard.

ISTINGUISHED by their good marching, the Michigan battalion was preceded by the members of the the regulation Knights Templar uniform. The officers are: John A. Gerow, grand commander: William G. Doty, deputy grand commander; Edward C. Smith, grand generalissimo; Jefferson S. Conover, grand captain general; Rev. Francis A. Blades, grand prelate; Henry L. Anthony, grand senior warden; Chas. H. Pomeroy, grand junior warden; H. Shaw Noble, grand treasurer; Wm. P. Innes, grand recorder; Wm. E. Jewett, grand standard bearer; Edward D. Wheeler, grand sword bearer; Albert Stiles, grand warder; Alexander McGrecor, grand sentinel. The thirty-five swords of Pontiac commandery. No. 2, of Pontiac, Mich., were officered as follows: George H. Foster, eminent commander; Joseph E. Sawyer, generalissimo; Fred S. Stewart, captain general; Wm. C. Richardson. prelate; Jos. S. Stockwell, treasurer; Melvin D. Sly, Recorder: James A. Sutton, senior warden: Aaron B. Avery, junior warden; Peter B. Bromby, standard bearer; E. C. Fuller, sword bearer; C. B. Budd, warder; Charles B. Hunt, sentinel. The 125 sir knights of Detroit commandery. No. 1, a very wealthy and old commandery of Michigan, attracted attention by their fine bearing. They were commanded by Eminent Commander Wm. C. Maybury, the popular ex-Congressman from Michigan. The other officers were: Wm. Livingstone, generalissimo; Eugene Robinson, captain general; Rev. F. A. Blades, prelate; Nicolas Coulson, treasurer; Wm. C. Anderson, recorder; Joseph Mayworm, senior warden; Lon Burt, junior warden; E. B. Wilton, standard bearer; C. A. Warren, sword bearer; F. Wallington, warder; A. Mc. Gregor. sentinel; Geo. W. Rider, W. F. Moore, James Benton, guards.

Among the best drilled bodies in line today was the Adrian commandery, No. 4, of Adrian, Mich., which marched with 50 knights in line. The officers for the present are: W. F. King, eminent commander: Fred A. Ferguson, generalissimo; Seymour Howell, captain general; Rev. George B. McElroy, prelate; Fred B. Wood, senior warden; Howard T. Taylor, Howard T. Taylor, junior warden; Edvin J. Shepherd, treas-

W. F. RING.

Gleason and L. H. Cheesbrough, guards. Fifty knights represented Jackson commandery, No. 9, of Jackson, Mich., in the Avery, J.W. A fair body of sir knights and one of the best known in Michigan then came marching in perfect order. Ann Arbor commandery, No. 13, has on its roster an unusually large percent-age of men who are noted Knights Templar and public characters. It had forty men in line, who wore the regulation white mandery. It was officered by cua les b. miscock, eminent commander; eralissimo; Charles S. Tall, captain general.

Sidney W. Clarkson, prelate; Lewis C. Goodrich, senior warden; James L. Stone, junior warden; DeWitt C. Fall.

treasurer; John R. EM. COM. HISCOCK. Miner, recorder; George W. Millen, standard bearer; Arthur C. Nichols, sword bearer; Wm. W. Watts, warder; Thomas Taylor, sentinel. St. Bernard commandery represented East

the regulation uniform. The officers are: Eminent Sirs R. B. Mc-Knight, eminent com-mander; Harvey Will-iams, guide; A. L. Button, captain general. Sirs Thomas H. Rusling, prelate; J. G. McCall, recorder; W. H. Clark,

Frank Ellsworth, junior E. COM R. B. M'ENIGHT. Warden; John E. West, standard bearer; C. E. Powell, sword bearer; William B. Moore, warder; William Cole, sen-

Lansing, Mich., marching with an evenness and 42 ST. bearer; Geo. W. Spice, sword bearer; Chas. F. EM. COM. BUCK. Taylor, warder, and Andrew J. Shiveley, sen-

The sixty sir knights of the Bay City com-mandery, No. 28, of Bay City, Mich., headed by a splendid rand brought on by themselves, eralissimo; Charles R. Hawley, captain general; S. Herbert Roblin, prelate; Allen L. Stew-

rt, senior warden; C. Bousfield, junior warden; Louis Goeschel, treasurer; Frank L. Wands, recorder; John Hughes, standard bearer; Edward V. Babcock; sword bearer; Frank O. Gilbert, warder; Austin RM. COM. CUPIT. Smith, sentinel,; Allen L. Stewart, Emmet T.

rity of Bertran Du Holcomb and Eugene Field, trustees. The Charlotte commandery, No. 37, of Charlotte, Mich., is not a very aged organization having been chartered in 1885, but there were 40 knights in line today loud praise. ber, generalissimo: P. senior warden; George Homer Green, recorder: PRILIP T. VAN ZILE. William J. Bonnett, standard bearer; Charles E. Easter, sword bearer; Horace S. Maynard, warder; Lafayette Rowley, sentinel. The membership of the commandery is now 95.

EICHTH DIVISION.

Right Eminent Sir Norman T. Gassette, the Grand commandery of the distinguished grand commander of lilinois.com-

Sir H. H. Miller.

Sir Charles G. Mac, Em. Sir Harvey M. Hall, Em. Sir John H. Wit-Em. Sir Gilbert W. Barnard, Em. Sir Cabel C. Johnson, Em. Sir Henry H. Montgom-Em. Sir Augustus L. Webster, Em. Sir Archibald McLellan, Most Em. Sir Vincent L. Hulburt, R. Em. Sir Henry C. Ranney, R. Em. Sir Daniel Dustin, R. Em. Sir William H. Turner, R. Em. Sir P. W. Barclay, R. Em. Sir Charles M. Morse, R. Em. Sir John C. Smith, R. Em. Sir Henry Turner, R. Em. Sir John L. win, Em. Sir L. L. Bond, Em. Sir Thomas E. Em. Sir G. B. Coffin. Em. Sir W.W. Patch, Em. | the guard. Sir R. L. Tatham. Em. Sir John H. Gunn, Em. Sir G. M. Evatt, Em. Sir Wm. M. Murphy, Em.

The division was found in the following or-Grand commandery, Illinois-Apollo commandery, No. 1, Chicago; Belvidere commandery, No. 2, Alton: Peoria commandery, No. 3, Peoria; Joliet commandery, No. 4. Joliet; Elwood commandery. No. 6. Springfield; Gales-burg commandery, No. 8. Galesburg; Beauma-noir commandery. No. 9. Dakota; Cairo commandery, No. 13, Cairo; Gorin commandery, No. 14, Olney; Crusader commandery, No. 17, tockford; Everts commandery, No. 18, Rock Island; Chicago commandery, No. 19. Chicago; Temple commandery, No. 20, Princeton: Aurora commandery, No. 22. Aurora; DeMolay commandery, No. 25. Woodstock; Palestine commandery, No. 27, Paris: Hugh DePayens commandery, No. 29, Carrollton; St. Omer com-mandery, No. 30, Litchfield; Hospitaler commandery. No. 31, Jacksonville; St. Bernard commandery. No. 35, Chicago; Athelstan comnandery, No. 45. Danville: Delta commandery, No. 48, Clayton; Constantine commandery, No. 51, Lincoln; Chevalier Bayard commandery, No. 52. Chicago; Siloam commandery, No. 54. Oak Park: El-Aksa commandery, No. 55, Quincy; Sterling commandery, No. 57, Sterling; Engle-wood commandery, No. 59, Englewood.

ILLINOIS. At the head of the visitors from Illinois was the grand commander, Right Eminent Sir Norman T. Gassette, a well-known citizen of Chicago, distinguished both for his civic and military services, and a conspicuous member of the order of Knights Templar, which he has served in many ways. The Grand commandery paraded today and their marching attracted a great deal of attention. The present officers of the Grand commandery are as follows: R. E. Sir Norman Theodore Gassette of Chicago, grand commander; V. E. Sir Geo. Mayhew Moulton of Chicago, deputy grand commander; E. Sir Joseph Edward Dyas of Paris, grand general-Joseph Edward Dyas of Paris, grand general-issimo; E. Sir Sylvester Omer Spring of Peorla, grand captain general; Rev. and E. Sir James Miller of Decatur. grand prelate; E. Sir Chas. Gamble Mac of Mattoon. grand senior warden; E. Sir Harvey Milton Hall of Olney, grand innior warden; E. Sir Liba P. Sir Jahan M. Sir recorder; I. N. Carson.
standard bearer; George W. Bigelow, sword bearer; J. D. McPhercorder: E. Sir Caleb Clark John Henry Witbeck of Chicago. grand treasurer; E. Sir Gilbert
Wordsworth Barnard of Chicago, grand recorder: E. Sir Caleb Clark John grand standard bearer; E. Sir Henry Hunter Montgomery of Carrollton, grand sword bearer; E. Sir Augustus Livingston Webster of Dan-ville, grand warder; E. Sir Archibald McLellan of Chicago, grand captain guard. The famous commandery of Chicago, Apollo, No. 1, made a notable appearance. They had 100 men in line, and were preceded by the Second Illinois Regiment band of fifty-two pieces. The officers marching at the head were: De Witt C.Cregier, eminent com-mander; William W.

Ramsey, generalissimo; John E. Loomis, cap-tain general; John prelate; Law-O'Netl. rence A. Spicer, senior warden; Charles A. Winship, junior warden; Henry D. Field, treas-urer; Franklin Hurl-burd, recorder; Daniel P. Shaw, standard bearer; Edward S. Fogg, sword bearer; John W.

May, warder; Moses N.DEWITT C. CREGIER. Fuller, captain of the guard. DeWitt C. Crieger, the eminent commander, is the present mayor of Chicago. The commandery has 618 members and is one of the largest in the country. It has attended a num-ber of the triennial conclaves, and in 1883 made pilgrimage to Europe.

er, was George T.Brown, afterward sergeant-at-arms of the United States Senate. It was com-manded in the parade by Henry R. Phinney, eminent commander; Frank H. Ferguson, geneminent commander; Frank H. Ferguson, generalissimo; Charles A. Herb, captain general; Rev. F. M. S. Tayloc, prelate; W. A. Heskell, senior warden; T. P. Yerkes, junior warden; Henry Watson, treasurer; Fred. S. Detrich, recorder; Charles Henderson, standard bearer; J. H. Raible, sword bearer; Charles W. Milnor, warder; Joshus Dickson, captain guard.

Joliet commandery, No. 4, of Joliet, Illinois, had forty knights in line. The uniform worn by this commandery is in accordance with that prescribed by the Grand prescribed by the Grand commandery of Illi-nois. Its banner is distinctive, of the usual shape, with its name, number and location embroidered thereon thereon around its coat of arms, which is symbolical of attracted no little attention as they marched up Pennsylvania avethe banner is a large passion cross with the mottoes, above, "In Hoc Signo Vinces," and below, "Non nobis domine, non nobis sed nomini tuo da gloriam."

The officers are: John B. Fithian, eminent commander; F. C. Wilcox, generalissimo; A. E. Caguire, captain general; Rev. John H. White, prelate; Lester Soule, senior warden; E. W. Willard, junior warden; W. G. Wilcox, treasurer; Charles A. Noble. recorder; Lee K. Stewart. stendard bearer; A. L. Moody, sword bearer; James W. Patterson, warder, and E. E. Howard, captain of guard. Peoria. Ill., was represented in the parade by wenty-five sir knights Peoria from mandery, No. 3. The officers of the commandery are: Joseph Elden. eminent commander; Albert L. Schimpff,general; Samuel H. Tag gart, captain general; N. C. Dougherty, pre-late; C. T. Hitchcock, treasurer; August Pfeiffer, recorder; A. J. Harbers, senior warden; J. J. Steiger. unier warden.

D. J. Forbes, warder. EM. COM. ELDEN. There were about forty knights clad in the Illinois regulation uniform in line today to represent Cairo commandery, No. 13, of Cairo, Ill., headed by a band of Sir George E. O'Hara, eminent commander: Sirs William S. Simpson, の generalissimo; Louis De Montcourt, captain general: Eminent and Rev.

illiamson, treasurer: John A. Waugh, re- Park. corder: Eminent Sirs Henry Wells senior war-EM. COM. O'HABA. den; John W. Morris, junior warden; Sirs Harry C. Waltz, standard bearer: Harry Clay Hughes, sword bearer; Emton, chief of staff. Aids-de-camp—Em. Sir Jos. Antrim, captain of guard. inent Sir Charles W. Henderson, warder; John

They carried a banner which has on it a finelyexecuted representation of a battle between a Gremplar and a Saracen. They had forty men in line. The present eminent commander is Aden prelate; Sirs George D.

Sir John White Phillips,

No. 14, of Olney, Ill.,

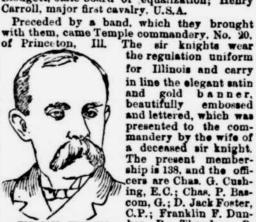

is composed of substan-

White, R. Em. Sir Wilbur F. Bromfield. Em. Knoph. The other officers are as follows: J. Van Sir Henry S. Tiffany, Em. Sir James P. Sher- Gunter, jr., generalissimo; M. D. Foster, captain general; John Euster, recorder; G. H. Harrison, Colfax; Eminent Sir Hezekiah L. Hosmer, Lawrence, Fin. Sir George W. Curtiss, Em. Sir | standard bearer; P. Raling, warder; J. H. Gunn. R. N. Lawrence, Em. Sir W. A. Stevens, Em. prelate; N. Niblo, senior warden; W. A. Thompsir J. L. Palmer. Em. Sir George W. Bright, son. junior warden; R. N. Stottes, treasurer; W. Em. Sir E. E. Thomas, Em. Sir W. W. Moore, F. Beck, sword bearer; W. H. Hill, captain of present officers are Horner S. Childs, eminent commander; Geo. R. McClellan, generalissimo: Henry Pratt. captain general; J. H. den; Nathan Wilder. junior warden: Henry Baker, treasurer; G. A. Williams, recorder; C. T. Donovan, standard bearer; C. T. Drake, sword bearer; W. H. Selfried, warder; Thomas H. Agnew, sentinel, The following are some of the prominent members of the commandery: Lawyers—Em. Sirs Lester L. Bond, Robert L. Tatham; Sirs C. Sirs Lester L. Bond, Robert L. Tatham; Sirs C. C. Bonney, Richard S. Tuthill, C. W. Woodman, J. L. Bennett. Newspaper men—Sirs Melville E. Stone, ex-editor Daily News, and Charles H. Harris (Carl Pretzel), Sunday National; John A. Roche, ex-mayor; George R. Davis, county treasurer; Franz Amberg, city clerk; Wm. R. Northway, city engineer; Em. Sir O. H. Cheeney, superintendent accorded Sir O. H. Cheeney, superintendent sewer de-partment; Sirs James L. Campbell, John C. Horn, John W. Lyke, aldermen; Col. E. E. Blodgett, state board of equalization; Henry Carroll, major first cavalry. U.S.A. Preceded by a band, which they brought and lettered, which was presented to the commandery by the wife of a deceased air knight. The present membership is 138, and the officers are Chas. G. Cushing, E.C.; Chas. P. Bascom, G.; D. Jack Foster, C.P.; Franklin F. Dun-EM. COM. CUSHING. bar, P.; Theodore P. Streeter, S.W.; Jacob Chritzman, J.W.; Daniel H.Smith, T.; John W. Bailey, R.; R. F. A. Ohman, St. Br.; Thomas J. Cooper, Swd. Br.; Luther D. Romberger, W.; Thomas P. Pierce, first guard; Thomas C. Callinan, second guard; Geo. G. Marius, third guard. Hon. T. J. Henderson, Representative in Congress from the Princeton district, is a member of Temple commandery.

St. Bernard commandery, No. 35, of Chicago made a good appearance in line. The com-mandery is composed chiefly of young men. They were officered as follows: George Hough Ward, eminent commander; Lewis Lee Wadsworth, generalissimo; Jesse Meade, captain general; Frederick Mason Ramsey, prelate; Frank Curtis Roundy, senior warden; George Day Eddy, junior warden; Thomas Eaton Mil-ler, treasurer; John Oscar Dickerson, recorder; odes Wilkins, M.D., historian; George B. loodall, standard bearer; Charles Augustus Loomis, sword bearer; William Johnston, warder; Samuel Morgan Richardson, captain of guard; Harry Archambault, organist; Henry James Meagher, third guard; Edward Pears on second guard; William Dougias, first guard.

The Chevalier Bayard, No. 52.of Chicago came next with fifty members in line. This is the commandery of which the late Gen. John A. Logan was a member and was the first and only commandery in Illinois to exemplify the work of the Red LTON, Ill., furnished the | Cross in full form and next commandery, the with appropriate equipments. The banner it Belvedere, No. 2, which carried is the Beauis the second oldest in seant" fringed with that state and had twenty | yellow and having the members in line. It was name of the command-EM. COM. WM. CRILLY. organized under dispensation in April, 1853, and the first candidate knighted in the commandcommandery, and it looked decidedly attractive.

Its present officers are: J. S. Ingram, eminent commander; C. J. De Berard, generalissimo; C. R. Critchell, captain general; E. C. Cook, prelate; C. F. Matteson, senior warden; J. T. Rockafellow, junior warden; M. J. Holmes, treasurer; L. M. Lovett, recorder; Frank M. Ellis, standard bearer; S. E. Pebbles, sword bearer; Albert Miller, warder; Joseph Scales, captain of guard.

The vonveset communication in the state of L.

ad fifty men in line wearing the regulation miform for Illinois. Their officers are: Jacob F. Foster, eminent commander; Pulhemus S. Hudson, generalissimo; Jas. H. Brayton, captain general; Ernest E. Holman, prelate; William B. Maher, senior warden; Jas. S. Wheeler, jr., junior warden; Christian Harry Vehmeyer, treasurer; Frank Sheffield, recorder; Alvin L. Ruigo, standard bearer; E. W. Prescott, sword bearer; L. P. Tenny, warder; amos Griffitha, captain of the guard.

about 40 sir knights in line with the following D. E. Walker, second guard; Chas. L. Field. officers: J. T. Smith, eminent commander; third guard: Wm. H. Smith, sentinel. officers: J. T. Smith, eminent commander; Andrew Welch, generalissimo; Willis Hoyt, captain general; C. W. Lee, prelate. (and has nue and in front of the reviewing stand. Its commanding officers dead and white twisted together, surmounted by a mailed arm, the hand holding a battle ax. The whole rests upon crossed lances, from the hilts of which a scroll is pendant bearing the hilts of which a scroll is pendant bearing the motto, "Fide Vinces." On the reverse side of Boyle, standard beager; E. O. Holt, sword Boyle, standard beater; E. O. Holt, sword bearer; C. F. Tyler, warder; W. H. Barrett, captain of guard.

NINTH DIVISION.

In the ninth division were ranged the commanderies from California, Tennessee, Wisconsin and New Jersey. It was formed as follows: R. Em. Sir Saml. Hopkins Wagener, commanding. Em. Sir Frank Wm. Sumner, chief of staff, Aids-de-camp-R, Em, Sir Wm. Monroe Petrie, R. Em. Sir Ed.W. Price, R. Em. Sir H. M. Aiken, Em. Sir Wm. A. Wyse, Sir Lyman Bridges.

Grand commandery, California-California commandery, No. 1, San Francisco; Sacra-mento commandery, No. 2, Sacramento; Oakland commandery, No. 11. Oakland; Golden Gate commandery, No. 16, San Francisco. Grand commandery, Tenuessee-Nashville commandery, No. 1. Nashville; Memphis com-mandery, No. 4, Memphis; Clarksville com-mandery, No. 8, Clarksville; Cœur de Lion commandery, No. 9, Knoxville; Murfreesboro commandery, No. 10. Murfreesboro; Jackson commandery, No. 13. Jackson; Lookout com-mandery, No. 14. Chatianooga; La Vallette commandery, No. 17, Nashville.

Grand commandery, Wisconsin-Wisconsin commandery, No. 1, Milwaukee; Janesville commandery, No. 2, Janesville; Robert Macoy commandery, No. 3, Madison; La Crosse commandery, No. 9, La Crosse; Oshkosh commandery, No. 11. Oshkosh; Ashland commandery, No. 22, Ashland, twenty-one pieces. The officers are: Eminent Payens commandery, New Jersey-Hugh de Payens commandery, No. 1, Jersey City; Helena commandery, No. 3. Burlington; Palestine commandery, No. 4, Trenton; Damascus com-mandery, No. 5, Newark; DeMolay commandery, No. 6, Washington: Cyrene commandery, No. 7, Camden; Cœur de Lion commandery, No. 8, New Brunswick: Ivanhoe commandery, No. 11. Bordentown; Melita commandery, No. 13, Paterson; St. Elmo commandery, No. 14, Lambertville; Corson commandery, No. 15, Asbury CALIFORNIA

Sir Jacob Hartneff, grand captain general, of grand prelate, of San Francisco; Eminent Sir Wm. Vanderhaust, grand senior warden, Salinas; Eminent Sir Frank W. Sumner, grand junior warden, of San Francisco; Eminent Sir John F. Merrill. grand treasurer, of San Fran-VEN HUNDRED was cisco; Eminent Sir Thos, H. Caswell, grand rethe number of knights corder, of San Francisco; Eminent Sir Edward that paraded under the S. Lippitt, grand standard bearer, of Petaof luma; Eminent Sir Trowbridge Hyer Ward, Chicago commandery. grand word bearer, of Los Angeles; Eminent Sir Wm. B. Miller, grand warder, of Sacralat on Knights Templar mento; Sir Samuel David Mayer, grand organ-uniform of Illinois. Its ist, of San Francisco, and Sir James Oglesby, grand captain of the guards, of San Fran-

The banner carried by this commandery is an exceedingly handsome affair, being entirely covered with gold and silver in heavy trimming. In the center it portrays a combat be-Macauley, senior war- tween a knight and a Saracen.

some uniforms but because they were well mounted. wore velvet silver ornaments. There were 150 knights in line. Many of them were accompanied on this pilgrimage by ladies. They left San Francisco a week age. and on their arrival were escorted to their of Princeton, Ill. The sir knights wear the regulation uniform for Illinois and carry Beverly Cole. generalissimo; E. W. Barney. captain general; Thomas Kyle. prelate; W. G. Winter, senior warden; Dr. J. W. Younger, funior wardenr B. F. Garrett, treasurer; Hiram T. Graves, recorder; Autone Craig. standard bearer: Mowbray R. Dundas, wards A rather remarkable feature is that all of the officers of the commandery are in attendance. The commandery comes to Washington fully prepared to entertain visiting sir knights with the genial hospitality so characteristic of Californians in general and California Knights Templar in particular. Sacramento commandery, No. 2, of Sacramento, Cal., paraded with twenty-five knights. The uniform worn is the one accepted by the Grand encampment of the United States. The commandery carried its banner, a beautiful piece of workmanship, which represents Hugh DePayens with his command of knights mounted in battle array. The following is a list of Wm. B. Davis, eminent commander; Wm. D. Knights, generalissimo; John E. T. Pike, captain general: John W. Rock. prelate; Rich'd P. Burr. senior warden; Joseph Davey, junior warden

EM. COM. DAVIS. Albert A. Van Voorhies, treasurer; Alfred Redngton, recorder; Wm. R. Jones, standard bearer; James E. Mills, sword bearer; Valentine Dresher, warder; Harry Ingham, captain first guard; Charles G. Woodburn, captain second guard; Richard Vaughan, captain third guard; George F. Bronner, sentinel.

Oakland commandery, No. 11, of Oakland, Cal., had under its beautiful banner half a hundred knights from the shores of the Pacific. This banner, which was presented to the commandery ever floated over a The commandery was uniformed in the regulation style. The officers are Eminent -ir George D. Sira Charles F. Burnham, generalissimo Charles W. Hewes captain general Herman H. Sears, prelate; Rollin C. Gaskill, P. E. C., prelate; Gaskill, treasurer; George William F. Pierce,

No. 16, of San

senior warden: George Patterson, junior war-den; John W. Philips, standard bearer; Lucien D. Davis, sword bearer; Howell A. Powell, warder; Arthur D. Thomson, herald; William P. Blood, first guard; Frank W. Cushing, second guard; Moses Morris, third guard; Charles E. Gillette, P. E. C., S. and C. of G. OLDEN Gate

Fresno commandery, No. 29, of California was also represented in line. Its officers are J. R. Williams, eminent commander; A. M. Clark, generalissimo; W. R. Thomas, captain general; C. Ghent, prelate; E. F. Selleck, senior warden; F. M. Miller, junior warden; H. P. Hedges, treasurer; G. C. Grimes, recorder; C. W. De Long, standard bearer; D. J. McDonald, sword bearer; O. J. Woodward, warder; M. L. Schermerhorn, sentinel; J. W. Smith, S. N. Smith, J. A. Webster, guards.

The knights from Tennessee were led by Grand commandery of that state, of which Eminent Sir Wm. C. Smith of Nashville, tendance at this meeting of the Grand encampment in addition to the immediate representatives, or the first four officers of the Grand rent year. Tennessee had three commanderies present at this triennial reunion as distinctive organizations, to wit: Clarksville, No. 8, stationed at Clarksville; Cour de Lion, No. 9, stationed at Knoxville, and La Vallette, No. 17, stationed at Delegations were present also from Nashville,

No. 1; DeMolay, No. 3; Memphis, No. 4; Baldwin. No. 7; Murfreesboro, No. 10; DePayens, No. 11; Jackson, No. 13; Lookout, No. 14, and St. Elmo, No. 15, in all about 150 knights. Upward of fifty sir knights represented Cour de Lion commandery of Knoxville, Tenn.,

No. 9 in line today. Nashville, No. 1, of Nashville, is officered as follows: Bradford Nichol, eminent commander; er; Leonard L. Grear, Albert B. Tavel, generalissimo; Sumper Kirkpatrick, captain general: Wm. J. Wallace, pre-late; George E. Buchanan, senior warden; Lyt-grand commander; John ton Taylor, junior warden; Wm. Porter, treas-TRIP across the continent

> Wm. H. Bliss, warder; Joseph S. Carels, Henry Hensley, James F. Stevenson, guards; Albert . Downer, sentinel. Memphis. No. 4, also had a good representation. Its officers are W. M. Brooks, eminent commander; R. M. Drake, generalissimo; I. F. Sellers, captain general; Marcus Jones, prelate; C. M. Espey, senior warden; A. F. Davis, junior warden; D. T. Porter, treasurer; Thos. Barchus, recorder; A. Gerlund, standard bearer; Egbert Smith, sword bearer; P. E. Hop-

Clarksville, No. 8, of Carksville, was well represented. Its officers are J. A. Wood, eminent commander. Thomas Bourne, general issimo; R. D. Caldwell, captain general; Achilles D. Sheares, prelate; W. B. Kincannon, senior warden; M. A. Stratton, junior warden; G. B. Wilson, treasurer; S. M. Viser, recorder; James T. Wood, standard bearer; J. R. Rossiter, urer; Bernard H. Rupp, recorder; Samuel Underwood, standard bearer; Granville Underwood, standard bearer; Granville Knight, sword bearer; Daniel T. Anderson, warder; Asa P. Secord, sentinel; Stillman W. Bennett, first guard; George W. Armstrong, second guard; James Donough, third guard; Adolf Wheeler, adjutant; Lewis C. Winchip, commissary, and William E. Jewett, organist. A well-known body and one of the old ones. chartered in 1856, in line, was the Peninsular. No. 8, of Kalamazoo, carrying an elegantly embroidered double banner. There were sixty sir knights in ranks and they wore the regulation uniform. The officers are: W. W. Olin, eminent commander: R. P. Hobbs, generalissimo; Hugh Beggs, captain general; George W. Young, prelate; George Roy, senior warden; J. Woodbridge, junior warden: Frank Henderson. treasurer; T. J. Hewson.

Knaupp, sentinel; G. O. Byington, organist; W.

Waterman, chaplain; A. B. Huntley, Charles parade. The total membership is 208. This commandery has taken part in every triennial since it was organized. Its officers are A. H. Traver, E.C.; H. L. Hunt, G.; H. F. Hatch, C.G., C. Northrup, P.; M. M. Cottrill, S.W.; S. H.

Benjamin F. Watts, gen

Saginaw in .the Michigan brigade. There were 50 swords in line, the sir knights all wearing

Reynick, senior warden; Then came the Lansing commandery bespoke zeal and discipline. It celebrated its ficers is as follows: | twentieth anniversary in Em. Sirs A. G. Tiliotson, June last. It was com-eminent commander; J. manded by Mayton J. Buck; Mason D. Chat-terton, generalissimo; Wm. S. Wright, captain general; Myron B. Carpenter, prelate; John H. Banghart, senior warden; Aaron Aber, junior warden; Fred. M. Alsdorf, treasurer; Geo. A. Hasby, recorder; Adelbert C. DuBoia, standard bearer; Geo. W. Spice, den; Aaron Aber, junior warden; Fred. M. Als-dorf, treasurer; Geo. A.

which is symbolical of its identity. It consists of a kite-shaped shield over a red Templar cross, the shield being divided diagonally in twe parts, the lower half black and the upper half silver, with a red passion cross em- EM. COM. FITHIAN, blazoned on the center, thus displaying prominently the Templar colors and emblem of the faith. The upper half is charged with the cross of the Grand encampment of the United States in gold, fixing the supreme jurisdiction to, which the commandery owes allegiance; the lower half is charged with the cross of the Grand commandery of Illinois in silver, indicating the immediate

The youngest commandery in the state of Illinois is Englewood, No. 59, of Chicago. They had fifty men in line wearing the regulation next. This ommande r v contains a crack drill squad. The officers of the officers of the officers of the officers of the commander; Carlos G. Young. generalissimo; William Edwards, captain general; Hezekiah L. Hosmer, G. P., prelate; A. B. Von Wefelsburg, senior warden; George McC. Taylor, junior warden; Herman J. Badler, treasurer; Wm. T. Fonds, recorder; James G. Waiker, standard bearer; Martin White, sword bearer; Joseph E. Firth, warder; Garl A. Kaepler, sword bearer; J. E. Totman, warder; Christian L. Lien, guard; Angus E.

TENNESSEE.

grand commander. This grand organization has had twenty-seven grand commanders, of whom Seventeen are new living, and of this number there were twelve in at

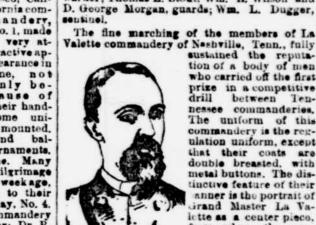

GR. COM. SMITH. commandery for the cur-

urer; George W. Seay, recorder; Jas. H. Frith, standard bearer; Wm. J. Butler, sword bearer;

Chico; Vice Eminent Sir kins, warder; R. H. W. Godwin F. Slater and Saml. Hopkins Wagener, dep- G. R. Byrne, guards; Alexander Hunn, sentinel.

sword bearer; T. H. Hyman, warder; J. T. Cunningham, A. S. Wood, guards; J. J. Hamlet, senunet. Murfreesboro' commandery, No. 10, was officered by Henry R. Howard, eminent commander; Wm. D. Robinson, generalissimo; Thomas M. King, captain general; James N. Murirce, prelate; Thomas H. Wood, senior warden; John Bell, jr., junior warden; Henry H. Kerr, treasurer; Robert T. Tompkins, recorder; Newton C. Maney, standard bearer; homas R. Hollowell, sword bearer; Richard

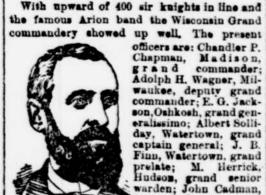

Joseyh B. Paimer, guards; John M. Wiggs, sentinel. Arthur G. Stivers, generalissimo; Wm. L. Shumate, captain general; Jonathan W. Bachman. prelate; C. L. Morrison, senior warden; Archi-Wischester, sword bearer; Alexander S. Glover. warder; Thomas E. Stout, Wm. R. Wilson and D. George Morgan, guards; Wm. L. Dugger,

who carried off the first prize in a competitive drill between Tennessee commanderies. The uniform of this commandery is the reg-ulation uniform, except that their coats are double breasted, with metal buttons. The distinctive feature of their anner is the portrait of irand Master La Valette as a center piece. from whom the commandery takes its nam-The officers are: Duncan

McKay, emment commander; Albert L. Reeves. generalissimo; John H. Polk, captain general. They had thirty knights in line.

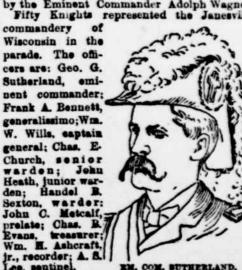

WISCONSIN.

Chapman, Madison, grand commander; Adolph H. Wagner, Milwaukee, deputy grand commander; E. G. Jackson, Oshkosh, grand generalissimo; Albert Solliday, Watertown, grand captain general; J. B. Finn, Watertown, grand orelate; M. Herrick, Hudson, grand senior warden; John Cadman, Stevens Point, grand junior warden; F. L. von Suessmilch, Delavan, GR. REC. LAFLIN. grand treasurer; John W. Lafin, Milwaukee, grand recorder; Le-roy G. Armstrong, Boscobel, grand standard bearer; Frank H. Starkweather, Beloit, grand sword bearer; George G. Sutherland, Janesville, grand warder; Leonard Barrett, Milwaukee, grand captain of guard. Trustees—H. L. Palmer, Milwaukee; C. P. Whitford, Beloit;

John Spence, Fond du Lec. The Wisconsin commandery, No. 1, of Milwaukee, which was organized in 1850, and holds high rank in Masonry, was commanded by the Eminent Commander Adolph Wagner. Fifty Knights represented the Janesville nmandery of Madison, Wis., Robert Macoy co marched today without Secretary Busk, who is a member, or Gen Lucius Fairchild, whose name is also on the rolls, but the knights managed, nevertheless, to make a go of the parade, and a good go at that. The officers of Robert Macoy are: C. G.

Mayers, eminent com-mander; William Helm Hevl, captain general John Corscot, preiste

The Aurora commandery of Aurora, Ill., has Burr Noble, herald; A. W. Baldwin, first gnard; Harrison, guard; William H. Tarbox, guard; shout 40 sir knights in line with the following D. E. Walker, second guard; Chas. L. Field. Milto J. Pitkin, sentinel. The Oshkosh commandery did not parade as a separate commandery, but marched with Wis-consin commandery, No. 1. Senator Sawyor is a member of this commandery. The offi-cers are: W. H. Ford, E.C.; W. W. Dagcers are: W. H. Ford, E.C.; W. W. Daggett, G.; E. G. Jacksen, C.G.; A A. Hinman, P.; J. E. Kennedy, T.; P. D. Kraby, R.; Fred Burgess, S.W.; J. W. Dunham, J.W.; J. N. Burgess, S.W.; J. W. Dunham, J.W.; J. N. Hoaglin, S.B.; H. L. Battis, Sw.R.; Cook Ely W., most of whom are here. This command Kempster near and in 1874, with Dr. Walter apster, now of this city, as eminent commander ton, John F. Scott, Wm. R. Durfee, W. M. Temp-kins, Carrie G. Bell, Gue Schwarts, Jerod E. Day, RM. COM. ELLIS. W. Marshall, G. W. Carrington, G. D. White, F. W. Sackett, Jacob Wilhelm, C. A. Lamereux. M. S. Millard, E. Fish, W. Swan, G. Dawe, James Shaw, M. W. Harris, J. K. Brassell, Robert Kennedy, Michael Barry, C. S. Webster, Charles Lacock, A. Swan, P. Carnean, J. S. Smith, Samuel Schneider, J. W. Lang, W. S.

Prominent among the commanderies in line was the New Jersey Grand commandery, under the commandership of Albert D. Winfield, Pat-Dobbe, Jersey City, grand junior warden; GR. COM. WINFIELD. Frederick G. Wiese, Bordentown, grand treasurer; Charles Bechtel. Trenton, grand recorder; James McCain, Trenton, grand standard bearer; Edward Mills, Camden, grand sword bearer; Robert Dingwell, Newark, grand warder; Samuel G. Bennett, Trenton, grand captain of guards. This commandery was organized in 1860 and aiways takes an active part in the triennial conclaves.

Hugh de Pavens. No. 1, of Jersey City, had a delegation in line officered by William B. Pugh, eminent commander: E. B. Seare, generalissimo; F. Selnow, captain general, and Warren Helens commandery, No. 3, of Burlington, had forty sir knights in line, officered as follows: Edward is. Panceost, em. commander; H. R. Beldin, generalissimo; Andrew McAlees; captain general; Joel Horner, jr., em. prelate; W. W. Slack, senior warden; Thos.J.McGinley, junior warden; Geo. Firing treasurer; Chas.T. Parker, recorder, Chas. V. Weyman, sword bearer; Wm. Gilpin, standard bearer, John A. Beard, warder; W. P. Leiper, Wm. Mitchell, Armstrong, warder; Louis Gotta, sentinel.

Palestine, No. 4. of Trenton, which was represented in line, is officered by Thomas & Hat-Lookout, No. 14, of Chattanooga, is officered | tersley, eminent commander; John K. Ashton, by Orion L. Hurbbut, eminent commander; generalissimo; William G. McCullough, captain general; Lewis C. Wooley, prelate; David H. Lukens, senior ward n; F. B. Yard, junior warden; Isaac Cooper, treasurer; Samuel bald N. Sloan, junior warden; John H. Pee- Brackett, recorder; A. S. Shellinger, standard COMMAND- bles, treasurer; George C. Connor, recorder; bearer; C. B. Bennett, sword bearer; William RRY from Thomas R. Evans, standard bearer; Frank L. H. Lennox, warder; Samuel G. Bennet, sentinel. Next in line was the Damascus commandery of Newark, N.J., in its beautiful uniform, con-

officered by John E. Rowe, P. C. rminent commander W. Hulifish, P. C., John P. Controll, ard-bearer; Frederick King, sword-bearer; Samuel Smith, warder; William Pilkington, captain of the guard; George B. Clark, third guard; T. C. E. Bianchard, second guard; Frank Tanner, first guard; Chandler C. Coates, trustee; William Allen, trustee; Thomas Godson, P. C., trustee; Robert Dingwell, P. C., finance committee; W. J. A. Umback, finance committee; John Brockie, finance committee: Enos Runyon, quartermaster; Eri D. Bemis, surgeon.

The members of DeMolay commandery, No. 6 of Washington, N.J., were the uniform adopted by the Grand commandery of New Jersey May 10. 1887. They carried a banner.

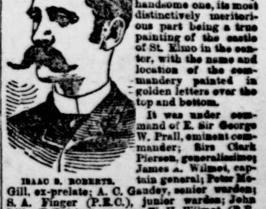

alissimo; J. S. Davidson, captain general They had in line about forty-five awords. N their black baldricks. the metal uttens of Yrene comandery, No. N. J., shone and presented a striking appearance. The officers are : Jos. F. P. Reed, E.C.; Geo. W. Steed, Gen., C. H. Austin, Capt.Gen.; N. P. Cowan, treasurer: Chas. F. Heilingshead, recorder; Jno. W. Warner, S.W.; Wm. Cline, J. W.: Thos. McDowell, warder; C. I. Wallace, standard bearer; J. B. Denn, sword bearer; R. F. Schmidt, Jonathan Duffield, J. A. Walmsley, guards; W. F. Ware and M. B. Taylor, prelater; From Bordentown came a delegation from

B. Adams, standard bearer; Frankiis B. Keeler, P.C., sword bearer; Aaron Robbins, P.C., war-den; Edward Clift, P.G.C., third guard; Geo. W. Lippincott, second guard; Wm. E. Rober-son, P.C., first guard; John O. Hudson, P.C., sentinel

are: William J. Lockwood, eminent commander; Joseph Mason, generalissimo; Marvey S. Orane, captain general; John H. Morrow, prelate; A.
W. Plaget, treasurer; Peter Drew, jr., recorder; Christian Hepp, senior warden; Edwin Parsons, junior warden; David Henry, standard bearer; George Rose, sword bearer; A. B.
Pearce, warder; W. H. Harmen, jr., first guard;
R. Blackburn, second guard; H. Van Eerd, third guard; Thomas Van Derbeck, sentinel, Among the young commanderies which made a fine display in line today was the St. Elmo. a fine display in line today was the St. Elmo. No. 14, of Lambertville, N. J., composed of 57 members. The style sisting of black chapeau, white plems, black coat, eleven gilt buttons on front.

Dobbs, recorder.

prelate; J. Grove Porter, confor warden; Lewis D. Crans, junior warden; Amzi Pierson, treasurer; John J Henry, recorder: J. EM. COM. ROWE. S. Mundy, stand-

The central figure of which is a representa-tion of DeMolay being burned to death. Its principal officers are James L. Shields, eminent commander; C. F. Staates, gener-

C. H. Snyder, organist; C. C. Smith, sentinel. Ivanhoe, No. 11, officered as follows: Robert T. Bantle, eminent commander; Edward Wiese, generalissimo; Charles W. Kimble, captain general; Henry Wetteroth, P.C., prelate; Gilbert T. Sutterly, senior warden; Heratie N. Jobes, junior warden; James W. Allen, treasurer; Fred. G. Wiese, P.G.C., recorder; Wm.

had a number of members in line. Its officer are: William J. Lockwood, eminent semmander

James A. Wilmet, tain general; Peter Gill, ex-prelate; A. C. Gandey, senior warden; J. Lilly (P.E.C.), treasurer; W. H. Wilmet (J. C.), recorder; R. A. Montgomery, stand bearer; Clarence Meore, sword bearer; Jaw. Rebesson, warder; James Whyte, centing. The past eminent commander. Isaac S. B. eris, was in 1886 elected grand commander the state of New Jersey and filled the of with exceptional ability and entistaction.